25X1	14. Met with Representation of Latin Representation of	tive Thomas Ashley
0EV4	and left with him a copy of a letter which Mr. Goodwin
25X1	This was in response to	letter to the President alleging that his father had worked for the A	gency and, as a result, 051/4	had been taken prisoner by Fidel Castro. Goodwin's le	etter stated that 25X1	had not been associated with this Agency	and suggested that he contact the Director of Cuban Affairs, State Department. Ashley recalled this case and was interested in having copies of this correspondence. I took this opportunity to call to Mr. Ashley's attention a newspaper clipping from the Washington Post which indicated that much of	from the Washington Post which indicated that much of the information which the Post had obtained on Agency support of foundations	had come from the files of the House Banking and Currency Committee (of which	ch Ashley is a member).
	Mr. Ashley was very interested in the article and spec	ulated that the source
25X1	might have been I mentioned in general terms our contacts
25X1	with Mr. Ashley was interested but did not appear to know
25X1 25X1	much about I pointed out that this was, of cour	se, a very sensitive area and emphasized that it was one in which we could	do nothing. I also made it clear that we were not asking the Congressman	n to take any action on this but thought, in view of his past affiliations (with R	FE), and continuing interest, he might wish to be aware of this.	G
	The Congressman mentioned, in passing, that t	he Subcommittee's report on the Fiat agreement was being well received.	He said the Agency's study was, of course, a very useful part of the study and represented a major contribution. We discussed some of the problen	as involved in the Agency's participation in these studies. It was Mr. As	shley's view that, where the Agency had and could prepare unclassified m	naterial of this sort.
	it should be made available to the Legislative Branch a	nd to the public.
	He said there might be reaction against this as there so	eemed to be against anything that involved the Agency but he said he thought	this had to be a matter of education.
25X1	Met with Mr. J.R. Blandfo	rd, House Armed Services Committee staff, and reviewed with him, at h	is request, the general breakdown of the two items of interest to the C	hairman appearing in the Air Force budget. Mr. Blandford was most appr	reciative and suggested that I also meet with Mr. Kelleher, through	whom the Chair-man's request was originally submitted.
OEV4	16. Met hriefly with Mr
25X1		Kelleher, House
	Armed Services Committee staff, and arranged to met	with him on Monday as he was on his way to a doctor for X-rays.
